

BlueHarbor Bank (proposed), Jim Marshall volunteers his time for charity

Mooreville, NC-July 31, 2007- Jim Marshall, President and CEO of BlueHarbor Bank (proposed), volunteered to be a "Jailbird" to raise money for MDA, The Muscular Dystrophy Association. One of the proposed banks shareholders asked Mr. Marshall if he would participate in the fundraising.

Millions of Americans of all ages are affected by more than 40 different neuromuscular diseases. The national voluntary health agency, The Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), is dedicated to researching the diseases and helping families conquer them.

With the $830 dollars raised by Mr. Marshall, MDA will be able to assist with Flu shots, Clinic visits and send a child to MDA Summer Camp. MDA started sending kids to camp in 1955, it gives the children a chance to "just be a kid" and not worry about their disability. MDA campers say, "It's the best week of the year".

In total, The Muscular Dystrophy Association had 33 participants that raised over $27,000 dollars.
